

Longshore Division History & Traditions Conference December 1-6, 2013 - San Francisco

Our objective is to offer a program rich in historical information about pivotal moments and issues in the Union's past, and about the workforce, the industry, and the international economy in which we work today, plus ways to use this information in carrying out the Union's program in our local unions and communities, particularly in the upcoming contract negotiations.

FOR DETAILS CONTACT YOUR LOCAL.