Dear Willie:

On behalf of the officers and members of the International Longshoremen's Association, AFL-CIO, please accept our condolences on the tragic passing of ILWU member Jarvis Haskin. The collective prayers and sympathies are extended to Brother Haskin's family and to his ILWU Sisters and Brothers.

Brother Haskin truly died a hero as he was working a ship during the early hours of today at the Port of Oakland during a time he would normally be off duty. Instead, Brother Haskin was helping to keep our nation's supply chain going during this horrific COVID-19 pandemic. The importance of the ILWU and ILA workforce may finally receive its due from a grateful nation – we know the value of our members and Brother Haskin will be remembered as one of the best.

Each time we lose one of our own, your ILWU motto rings ever truer: "An Injury to One is an Injury to All."

Respectfully and fraternally,

Harold J. Daggett
International President
